2 Continuance in employment of superannuated pensioners for more than a year is highly objectionable and this cannot be done except on strong public grounds. The S. Surgeon says that he is unable to replace the present men by other qualified hands. and recommends therefore their continuance. This is no doubt a good ground for continuance. But it is a point for consideration if the Water Works Deptt find it quite impossible to make their own arrangements for the medical help in question. (Vide para 7 page 4 of the notes recorded in Med. 147 of 1912-13). This may be ascertained and the file retd for opinion
